

Writer

Kat Butterfield

Julia Mills
Lead Agent

+44 (0) 20 7632 5284
julia@berlinassociates.com

audrittbutterfield.com

Bio

Kat Butterfield is a comedy writer/producer and the co-creator of Comedy Central sketch series, MODERN HORROR STORIES, which was nominated for Debut Writer in the 2020 EdTV Fest New Voice Awards.

She co-wrote the multi LOVIE award winning COMIC RELIEF ORIGINALS series, which included ‘STEPHEN HAWKING’S NEW VOICE’, viral hit sketch ‘A MODERN DATING HORROR STORY’ which amassed over 250 million views worldwide and co-wrote the 2020 STRANGER THINGS sketch for Sport Relief UK/USA (Netflix/BBC One).

She co-wrote series 3 of the Radio 4 sitcom ABILITY with Britain’s Got Talent winner Lost Voice Guy and has also written two 30 minute episodes of young adult comedy dramas ALMOST NEVER (CBBC) and FLATMATES (BBC iPlayer).

She’s written for numerous TV and radio shows including THE JONATHAN ROSS SHOW (ITV), TAKESHI’S CASTLE (Comedy Central), REASONS TO BE CHEERFUL WITH MATT LUCAS (Channel 4), GODS OF THE GAME (Comedy Central), PLEASE USE OTHER DOOR (Radio 4), FLAPS (Comedy Central) and FAMALAM (BBC iPlayer).

Along with her writing partner Daniel Audritt, she’s currently working on original projects with a number of production companies and has a comedy series in development with a major international streamer.